

Eric Debroeck, Senior Vice President, Group regulatory affairs, Orange

Eric Debroeck has been Senior Vice President Group regulatory affairs at France Telecom – Orange since mid-2004.

From 2000 to mid-2004, he was Director of the national carrier services, the business entity in charge of wholesale business activities with national competitors.

Prior to this period, he held diverse management positions within France Telecom in the areas of corporate strategy, national and European regulation.

Eric Debroeck graduated from Ecole Polytechnique and Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Télécommunications.