

ETNO-MLex Regulatory Summit | Radisson Blu Royal | 23 June 2015

Pastora Valero, Senior Director, Public Policy and Government Affairs for Europe, Middle East, Africa and Russia, Cisco.

Pastora Valero leads government affairs activities for Cisco in the EMEAR region and is responsible for developing and advancing Cisco's technology and communications policy agenda including broadband, Internet governance, IP enabled services, security, trade and energy.

She joined Cisco in 2003, and prior to her regional role, she led Cisco's European Union Government Affairs strategy between 2003 and 2013.

Pastora Valero has almost two decades of experience in regulatory and public policy issues in the telecommunications and Internet related areas, as well as on EU public policy with respect to competition, trade and information technology regulation. Prior to Cisco, she was Vice-President Regulatory Affairs for Global TeleSystems (GTS), a pan-European fibre optic network operator. She started her career with the Brussels law firm Van Bael & Bellis, and dealt in particular with EU trade and competition law issues.

Pastora Valero holds leadership positions within several industry organisations including as Chair of the Digital Economy Committee of the American Chamber of Commerce to the E.U., and Board member of the Trans-Atlantic Business Council (TABC).

She is a qualified lawyer in Spain, holds a Master's degree in European law (ULB, Brussels) and an L.L.M in International law (VUB, Brussels).
